How to fix CAD Training Quiz Issues

CAD Tech Student Managers - 2026-11-01 - How-to Articles

Un-enrolling from the rest and re-enrolling should be enough to fix any issues that were had. On the main page, next to the training activity, click the drop down. Yours should show the ability to drop the course. After dropping the course, re-enroll and re-take the quiz. For any questions, please email emscias@rit.edu.
